

111th ANNUAL REUNION SHAMOKIN AREA HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

SATURDAY, MAY 28, 1994

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to Shamokin Area High Schools 111th reunion.

The conditions are perfect, the anticipation is high, the excitement is building and now enjoy a night of fun with your classmates and friends. The committees that make sure everything is just right for this celebration have once again, done an outstanding job and for this we thank them very much.

For some of you this will be your first visit to our school. We enjoy these facilities many times each year for sporting and social events and now we want you to share them so you can tell your friends how great your hometown school is.

Tonight we welcome the class of 1994 as members of our Alumni Association. Those of us that watched you grow over the last thirteen years, thank you for all the pleasure you have given to us. We enjoyed watching and hearing you in sporting events (championships and champions), class plays, band events including concerts, competition and halftime at football games, orchestra concerts and programs, choral groups, cheerleaders and cheerleader competition. These are part of the things we as alumni remember about our school life. Take these memories into the future for strength and stability as you find your niche in life. Good luck and God bless you.

Tonight is a night for relaxation and fun. Let's share all our happy moments with each other. Some of us haven't seen one another since graduation or a prior reunion and we have many experiences to tell, old times to remember and, yes, plan for another reunion. Have fun and enjoy!

It's been an exciting year as your president. It took a record of five cancellations before we had our January meeting. We persevered and all went well. I personally want to thank all committee persons for making my job easy and enjoyable.

Thank you for coming and may the happiest days of the past, be the saddest days of the future.

Sincerely,

Thomas F. Olcese,
President
