

112th ANNUAL REUNION SHAMOKIN AREA HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

SATURDAY, MAY 27, 1995

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We personally welcome you to the 112th Shamokin Area High School Reunion.

All's on the ready for a grand evening to be enjoyed by your classmates and friends because of the continuous dedication and hard work of all the committees to ensure the success of this special event.

Tonight the Class of 1995 will join us as new members to this distinguished organization. Through the years we've watched you grow into responsible and fine adults. Your many memories of your successes and losses will instill in you a strength for your continued efforts throughout life. We thank you for the many pleasures you have given us from all the many activities you have displayed these past thirteen years. These memories will sustain you and become treasured memories of your youth. Our very best wishes and luck for a healthy and successful life.

Tonight let the fun begin! And for those alumni who have returned for the first time or from previous reunions, you'll enjoy reminiscing and regaling your past experiences.

This has been a pleasurable and heartwarming year for me as your President. The tireless efforts of the committees throughout the year has aided my duties as President with immeasurable ease. Thank you seems inadequate to say for such dedication, but to all the committees, thank you!

We're happy to see your attendance at this fine occasion. May this night add enjoyment and a special memory in your heart as one more endearing experience at Shamokin Area High School.

Fondly,

Shirley
